Mission Statement

The Mission of the Maui Police Department is to serve our community in a manner that epitomizes those ideals woven into the fabric of the Constitution of the United States and the Spirit of Aloha. We will strive to enhance the quality of life in cooperation with all who share these beautiful islands in making this a better place to live.

We are committed to excellence through:

INTEGRITY

We will be honest and sincere in our personal and professional lives. We serve with courage and pride in maintaining the public trust by upholding the highest moral and ethical standards.

COMPASSION

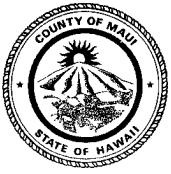

We will be sensitive yet firm while dedicating ourselves to preserving the dignity of each individual. Our cultural diversity allows us to be patient, caring, and kind in our treatment towards each other.

FAIRNESS

We will consistently treat all people fairly and impartially in upholding the laws of the State of Hawaii and the Constitution of the United States.

SERVICE

We will dedicate ourselves to improve and ensure the quality of life in our community for future generations through professional and quality service. We are committed to protecting life and property, preventing and solving crime, reducing fear and providing a safe environment. We will strive to work in unity with our community to develop a partnership in solving problems and to be responsive to community needs and concerns.

CLAYTON N.Y.W. TOM
DEPUTY CHIEF OF POLICE

April 21, 2014

Mr. Roger Dixon, Chair
And Members
Maui Police Commission
County of Maui
55 Mahalani Street
Wailuku, HI 96793

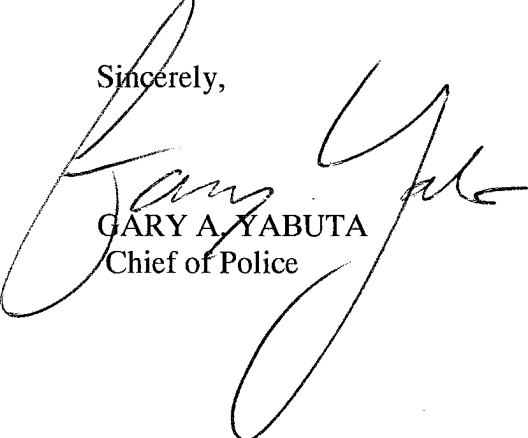

Dear Chair Dixon and Members:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 13-7 of the Maui County Charter, we are pleased to submit the 2013 Annual Report of the Maui Police Department.

We would like to once again express our gratitude to the Police Commission, the Mayor's Office, the County Council, and the people of Maui County for their continued cooperation and support. The members of the Maui Police Department will continue to provide the people of Maui County with our professionalism and remain dedicated to keeping our streets, residences, businesses, schools, and our tourists safe and removed from the fears associated with crime and public safety hazards.

The information contained in this Annual Report cannot fully describe the commitment of our officers and employees, and the application of their skills and knowledge necessary to fight and reduce crime. The efforts of our police officers and employees are in many ways immeasurable, and our productivity is largely based on our partnership with our community and our local government. Together, we all keep our islands a most beautiful place to live.

Sincerely,

GARY A. YABUTA
Chief of Police

Charter Provision

The Maui County Police Department is organized in accordance with Section 8, Chapter 12.1 of the Charter of the County of Maui. There shall be a department of police consisting of a police commission, a chief of police, and the necessary staff.

The duties and functions of the Chief of Police are defined in Section 8-12.4 of the Charter, which states that the Chief of Police shall:

1. Be the administrative head of the department of police.
2. Be responsible for the preservation of the public peace, prevention of crime, detection and arrest of offenders against the law, protection of rights of persons and property, and enforcement and prevention of violations of all laws of the State and ordinances of the county and all rules made in accordance therewith.
3. Be responsible for traffic safety and traffic safety education.
4. Train, equip, maintain and supervise the force of police officers and employees of the department.
5. Have such other powers and duties as may be assigned by the mayor or as may be provided by law.

Long Term Direction and Executive Highlights

We continue to be guided by our Goals and Objectives in our daily operations and our planned efforts as well. We are committed to excellence through effective leadership and strategic planning.

We understand that our operational resources are directly related to the economic status of our county, our state, and our country. Therefore, our limited resources are investments in the best crime prevention methods and energy effective operations that specifically focus on threats identified through crime mapping and intelligence gathering.

Our professionalism and our values will facilitate the public's confidence in the Maui Police Department, and our never-ending pursuit of ridding our community of drugs, violence, school bullying, property crime, traffic deaths and family abuse, will motivate us to make a difference each day in Maui County.

It is our duty to protect our community from catastrophic threats such as active shooter killings and terrorism, which has inflicted predisposed safe communities throughout our nation and similar in character to our own community. Of paramount importance is our investment in crime.

Goals and Objectives

Enhance Personnel Development

- Maintain a versatile and disciplined police department necessary to meet the rising demands of law enforcement through effective leadership, planning, education, training and compliance to accreditation standards.
- Develop and sustain a sufficient and effective workforce through diligent and selective hiring practices.
- Provide support for employees and their families during and after critical incidents and traumatic events.

Advocate Fiscal Management and Energy Efficiency

- Ensure fiscal accountability and successful budget management.
- Increase energy efficiency and the use of renewable energy sources.

Reduce Crime and Increase Public Safety with Prevention Methods

- Reduce crime through strategic planning, effective investigative practices, use of technology and the efficient delivery of law enforcement services.
- Provide highway and roadway safety through effective enforcement strategies and public education.

Enhance Quality of Life

- As the most significant contributors to the “quality of life” in the county, we must ensure excellence in service with each individual deserving the highest quality of police service.

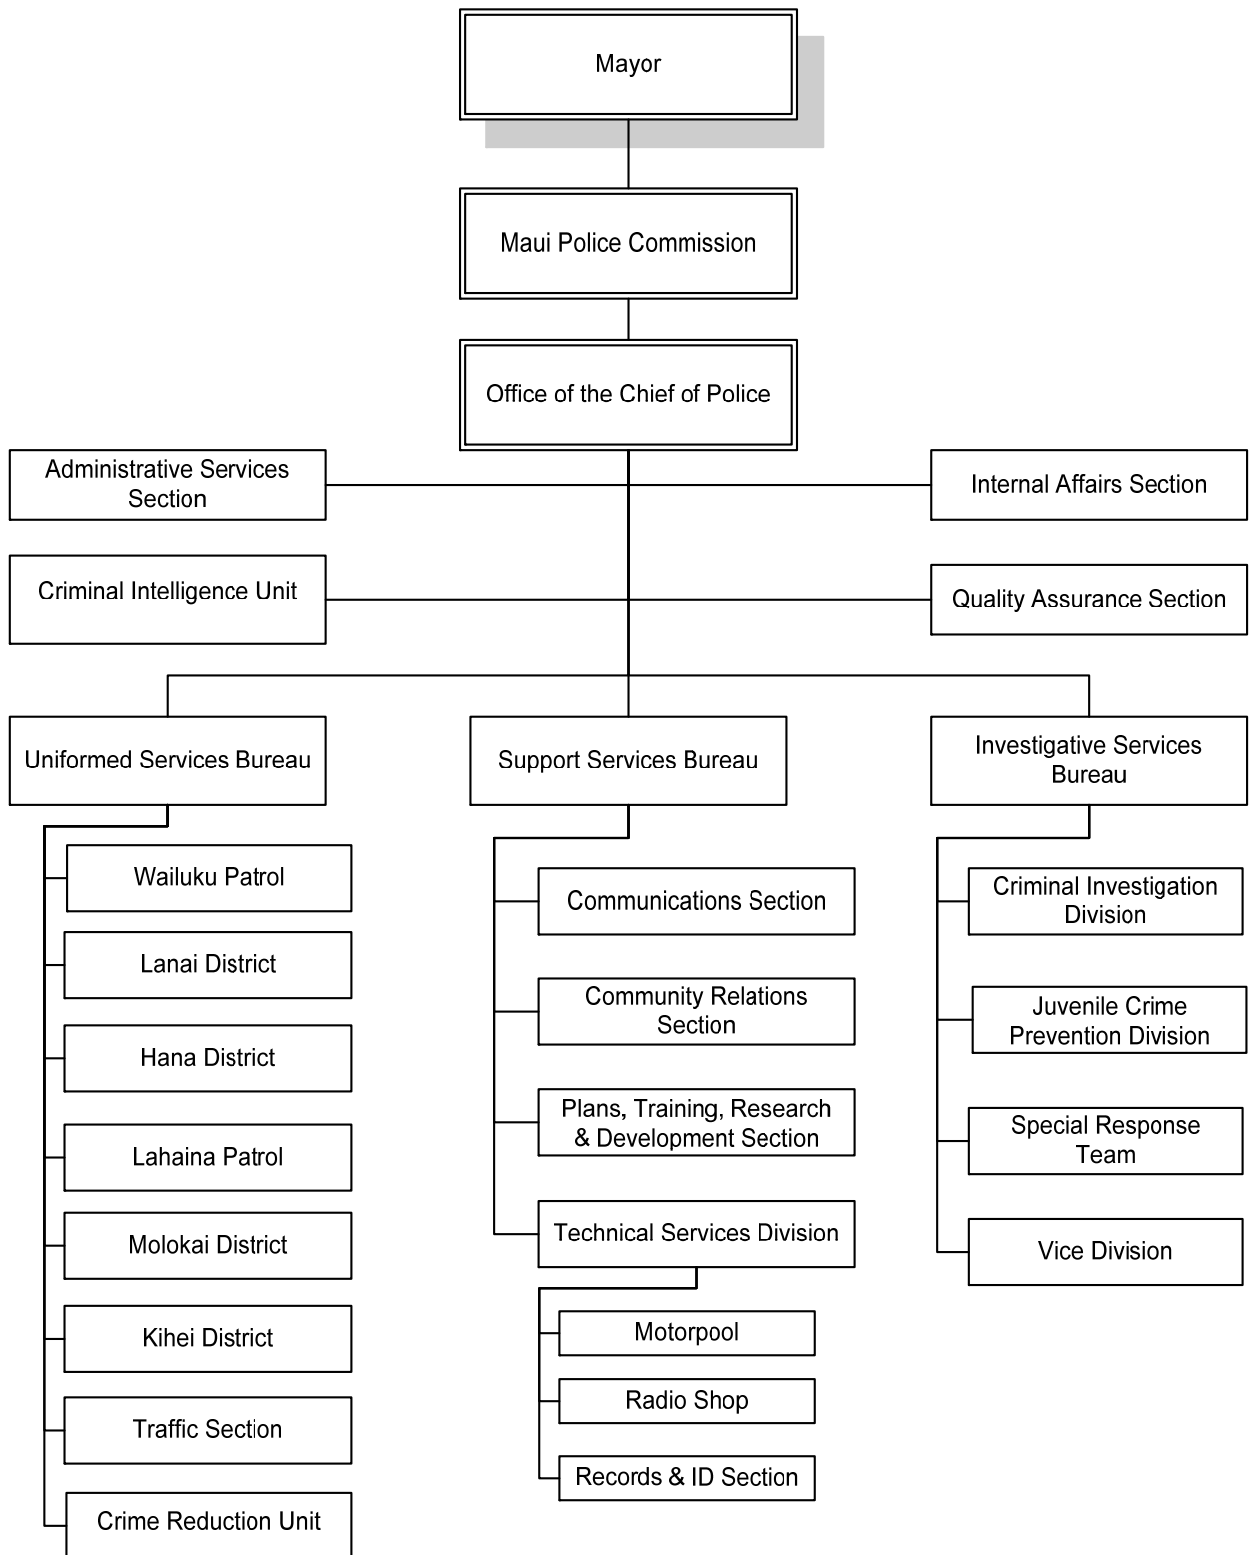

Promote Emergency Preparedness

- Prepare and maintain the department’s capabilities to address homeland security and manmade/natural disasters through: interoperable communications; intelligence/information sharing; provide first responders with specialized clothing and equipment for protection against health and safety hazards; conducting vulnerability assessments; training and exercises; planning; and emergency backup power/communications.

Foster Outside Agency and Community Partnerships

- Support community programs and activities by: promoting community involvement; building partnerships through community policing; and providing instruction in crime prevention and safe-neighborhoods.
- Invest in youth development strategies for our schools and our children.
- Actively involve the community in policing efforts.
- Develop and maintain partnerships with county, state and federal law enforcement agencies as well as other agencies/organizations that would benefit the community.

Administrative Services

Greg Takahashi was the Business Administrator for the entire year.

Expenditures for the Department in 2013 totalled $45,743,610. This reflects an increase of $1,182,054 from 2012 expenditures which were $44,561,556. As in years past, Personnel Services (salaries) was the largest single expenditure. The 2013 total of $33,164,324 attributed to salaries, which reflects 73% of all expenditures for the year. By comparison, 2012 Personnel Services expenditures totalled $32,853,914 or 74% of that year's spending.

Greg Takahashi

As of December 31, 2013, total Department strength was 449. In 2013, 40 personnel were appointed: 28 police officers, 5 emergency services dispatchers, 2 public safety aides, 1 office operations assistant, 1 administrative assistant, 1 clerk, 1 criminalist, 1 radio technician, and 1 MVA reconstructionist technician. In the same year, 20 personnel separated from service and 20 personnel retired.

Criminal Intelligence

Wade Anzai

Lieutenant Wade Anzai was in command of the section for the entire year. The Unit operates under the direct supervision of the Chief of Police and the Deputy Chief of Police.

The Criminal Intelligence Unit is responsible for providing the Office of the Chief of Police with accurate and updated information relative to the organized criminal activities, activist groups who violate laws or pose a threat towards public safety, information pertaining to terrorism, and general criminal activities.

All intelligence advisories and information received is analyzed, with all non-restrictive information being disseminated to the appropriate police elements and other law enforcement counterparts. The advisories and information is utilized to reduce organized criminal activities, enhance officer safety, and keep updated on new trends and technology.

The Criminal Intelligence Unit issued 503 intelligence and officer safety advisories throughout the year. The Unit also documented 307 intelligence reports relative to criminal activities. Criminal activities include organized crime and crime figures, their associates and suspected businesses, the distribution and sales of illegal narcotics by drug trafficking organizations, gambling activities to include cockfighting and prostitution, and weapons violations.

Internal Affairs

Captain Wallace Tom was in command of the Internal Affairs Section for the entire year. The section operates under the direct supervision of the Chief of Police and Deputy Chief of Police.

The Internal Affairs Section continues to perform a wide variety of functions within the Department. These include administrative investigations and inquiries, participation in the Department's Drug Testing Program, police officer recruitment testing and processing, required sworn and civilian background checks, and assisting the Records Section with the proper destruction of evidence.

Wallace Tom

The Internal Affairs Section is also involved in providing assistance to the Corporation Counsel relative to civil lawsuits and related matters as well as responding to subpoenas for release of administrative investigation records.

In 2013, respective elements of the Department conducted 75 formal investigations and 17 inquiries. Internal Affairs assisted in the drug testing of 150 employees and conducted 350 background checks.

Quality Assurance

Jeraul Pladera

The Quality Assurance Section was under the command of Lieutenant Jeraul Pladera for the entire year.

The Quality Assurance Section is an organizational component of the Office of the Chief of Police. Quality Assurance was created in 1995 to provide service to the Department as a whole by participating in staff inspections to measure the quality of performances and monitoring the level of compliance with standards for law enforcement agencies established by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA).

During the year, the Quality Assurance Section conducted biennial staff inspections of the Investigative and Support Services Bureau divisions and sections, six unannounced district evidence/property inspections and six announced district evidence/property inspections. In 2014 the Maui Police Department will apply for its sixth re-accreditation.

Uniformed Services Bureau

Victor Ramos

Assistant Chief of Police Victor Ramos was in command of the Uniformed Services Bureau for the entire year.

The Uniformed Services Bureau consists of all uniformed patrol services in District I (Wailuku), District II (Lanai), District III (Hana), District IV (Lahaina), District V (Molokai), District VI (Kihei), Traffic Section, and the Crime Reduction Unit.

The six patrol districts are responsible for providing services for the preservation of the public peace, prevention of crime, and protection of life and property. The Traffic Section provides services in the enforcement of laws and ordinances pertaining to vehicular and pedestrian traffic on public highways. The Crime Reduction Unit is a plain clothes investigative unit that provides county-wide assistance with fugitive apprehensions, case follow-ups, and self-initiated investigations.

DISTRICT I, WAILUKU

Captain Clarence Kenui was in command of the Wailuku Patrol District for the entire year.

Sergeant Lawrence Pagaduan supervised the School Resource Officer (S.R.O.) Program for the entire year. The S.R.O. Program is a specialized unit of the Uniformed Services Bureau and has a partnership with the Department of Education which networks with various other government agencies and non-profit organizations to act as a liaison between the involved schools and the Maui Police Department.

Clarence Kenui

Sergeant Mark Vickers supervised the Community Oriented Policing (COP) Program, the Alternative Call Servicing (ACS) Unit, and the Highway Incident Traffic Team (HITT) for the entire year. The ACS Unit handles minor non-emergency cases over the telephone where there is no immediate threat to anyone and no evidence at the scene. In 2013, there were a total of 8 officers who worked within the ACS Unit, compiling a total of 1,041 cases and 259 supplementary reports. The HITT Unit is utilized for major incidents that have occurred on our highways that affect the motoring public for extended periods of time. The majority of their responses have been to fatal and near-fatal traffic accidents. In 2013, the HITT Unit responded to 68 call-outs.

The purpose of the Community Oriented Policing (COP) Program is to have police officers and private citizens working together in creative ways to solve contemporary community problems related to crime, fear of crime, social and physical disorder, and neighborhood decay. At the close of 2013, Officers Aylett Wallwork, Jhun-Lee Casio, Stuart Kunioka, and Marjorie-Ann Kahookele were assigned to the Wailuku District COP Program.

Officer Keith Taguma was the Parking Enforcement Officer for Wailuku in 2013. He is responsible for citing traffic violations, as well as making checks on abandoned and derelict vehicles. Officer Taguma issued a total of 6,986 citations, generated 49 incident reports, and made 8 arrests.

DISTRICT II, LANAI

William Gannon

Lieutenant Derrick Lopez was in command of the Lanai District until June 30, 2013 when he was replaced by Lieutenant William Gannon.

Lanai District officers participated in a variety of community programs and events throughout the year to include the Annual Lanai Keiki Catch Fishing Tournament and the Kahiau Project. The Lanai Keiki Catch Fishing Tournament celebrated its ninth year, with approximately 90 children and their families participating in the two day event.

The Kahiau Project provided 87 households with gift boxes containing food and sundry household items. Families with children also received presents donated by the Salvation Army and private individuals. Also serviced were 90 senior citizens, who received gift certificates for groceries and ferry coupons. Gifts were also provided for 4 hospital bound patients.

Calls for service continued to increase in 2013, reaching a five year high of 3,164 calls. There were 101 adults arrested for 200 charges last year, a slight decrease from the 109 adults arrested in 2012. Juvenile arrests increased from 9 in 2012 to 26 in 2013. There were 22 impaired driving arrests in 2013, more than twice the number from the previous year. Officers issued 680 traffic citations in 2013, a 3% increase from 2012. There were 34 motor vehicle crashes documented in 2013, as compared to 39 in 2012.

DISTRICT III, HANA

Lieutenant Mitchell Pellazar was in command of the Hana District until March 16, 2013 when he was replaced by Lieutenant Stephen Orikasa.

To support the community policing concept, officers in Hana District have been designated to represent the five most populated areas of the district: Keanae, Nahiku, Hana Town, Kipahulu and Kaupo. Each officer meets with individuals in their assigned communities regularly to learn of their problems and issues, and work to resolve community concerns.

The total number of calls for service decreased 10% from 2,606 in 2012, to 2,371 in 2013. Officers made 162 arrests in 2013 as compared to 107 in 2012, a 34% increase. There were 762 traffic citations issued, a 29% decrease from 2012. There were 126 motor vehicle crashes documented in 2013, as compared to 85 in 2012.

Stephen Orikasa

DISTRICT IV, LAHAINA

Captain John Kaupalolo was in command of the Lahaina Patrol District until February 16, 2013 when he was transferred to Wailuku and replaced by Captain Mollie Klingman.

During the year, several problems were identified and addressed through strategies involving aggressive enforcement of existing laws. The top concerns identified by the community were drug activity, homeless issues, speeding and parking violations, and impaired drivers.

Mollie Klingman

The District hosted the 2013 Halloween festivities on Front Street with an estimated crowd of 27,000 people. The goal and main focus for the evening was to ensure a fun but safe Halloween night for all the participants and spectators.

The Lahaina District began the West Maui Bicycle Program at the end of 2013. One sergeant and six officers have been trained and are now certified.

Calls for service showed a slight decrease with 19,951 calls in 2013 as compared to 20,229 in 2012. There were 1,074 persons arrested during the year. The district issued a total of 6,514 citations in 2013 as compared to 8,754 in 2012.

DISTRICT V, MOLOKAI

Captain John Jakubczak was in command of the Molokai District for the entire year.

John Jakubczak

Officer Michael McCutcheon continued his duties as the School Resource Officer for the Molokai Patrol District. He continues to build a good rapport with the students and faculty at Molokai Intermediate and High School. He actively conducts conferences and meets with students, parents and faculty to address such issues as on-campus fighting, gang activity, tardiness and loitering.

Officer Lonnie Ka'ai serves as the Community Police Officer for the District. Throughout the year, he has taught D.A.R.E. classes and conducted numerous presentations to school students. He addresses community concerns and has participated in or conducted numerous meetings with various community organizations.

In 2013, the Troy Barboza Special Olympics Walk/Run returned to Molokai. All of the money raised for this event stays on Molokai to benefit the Molokai Special Olympians.

Calls for service showed a slight decrease with 6,751 calls in 2013 as compared to 6,854 in 2012. There were 720 criminal arrests during the year. The district issued a total of 1,123 citations in 2013 as compared to 1,223 in 2012.

DISTRICT VI, KIHEI

Captain Tivoli Faaumu was in command of the Kihei Patrol District for the entire year.

On December 5, 2013, a grand opening ceremony was held for the new Kihei District station. More than 200 people were in attendance with dignitaries from federal, state, and county agencies.

Officer Emily Kibby served as the Community Police Officer for the entire year. She attends regular meetings with the memberships of various community associations and home owners groups, as well as participating in the Community Work Day Program and the Kalama Park Action Team. Officer Alan Brown served as the Visitor Oriented Police Officer for the district until his promotion in December. The VOP officer assists tourist victims who may be in need of special assistance due to a tragedy or unfortunate victimization.

During 2013, Kihei Patrol Officers conducted bicycle patrols of the district's parks and beach areas. This activity serves both as a proactive crime prevention measure and a means to enforce violations not typically accessible to officers from their patrol vehicles.

There were 22,147 calls for service in 2013, a 9.6% increase from the previous year. The district issued a total of 5,369 citations and made 113 traffic arrests.

Tivoli Faaumu

TRAFFIC SECTION

Ricky Uedoi

Lieutenant Ricky Uedoi took command of the Traffic Section on March 16, 2013.

The Maui Police Department issued 42,228 citations in 2013 as compared to 43,639 citations issued in 2012. The Traffic Section alone issued a total of 6,816 citations for various violations.

In 2013, the Maui Police Department arrested 1,089 people for driving under the influence, with the OUI Task Force making 600 of those arrests. Of the 1,089 people arrested, 118 were under the influence of a drug other than alcohol. There were 49 people arrested at the OUI roadblock during the year.

There were a total of 16 traffic fatalities this year as compared to the 23 fatalities in 2012. There were also 6 near fatal crashes investigated by the Vehicle Homicide Unit. All but 1 fatality occurred on Maui. There was 1 fatal crash on Molokai in May. Speed was a factor in 2 of the 16 fatal crashes. Alcohol was a factor in 10 of those crashes.

CRIME REDUCTION UNIT

Sergeant Jerald Perkett was in command of the Crime Reduction Unit for the entire year.

The Crime Reduction Unit provides services county-wide. The Unit addresses street level illegal drug use and distribution throughout the County of Maui by cultivating information, targeting specific areas, executing search warrants, conducting buy/bust operations, and performing basic street enforcement. The Crime Reduction Unit also continues to assist other divisions within the Department with their investigations of wanted fugitives by providing information learned from confidential informants or through interrogations of arrestees.

Jerald Perkett

In 2013, the unit executed 88 search warrants and made 853 criminal arrests.

Investigative Services Bureau

Danny Matsuura

Assistant Chief of Police Danny Matsuura was in command of the Investigative Services Bureau for the entire year.

The Investigative Services Bureau plans, organizes, and coordinates the activities of the Criminal Investigation Division, Vice Division, Juvenile Crime Prevention Division, and Special Response Team. The Bureau Chief coordinates investigations involving crimes against persons and property, domestic violence, vice and drug activities, and juvenile crime prevention programs.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION

Captain Dean Rickard was in command of the Criminal Investigation Division for the entire year.

The Criminal Investigation Division conducts specialized and detailed police investigations of all criminal and non-criminal matters referred to this Division, including the detection and apprehension of criminals, and renders assistance with security of visiting dignitaries when requested. The Division is also responsible for the duties of the Domestic Violence Unit.

Dean Rickard

Evidence Specialist Anthony Earles with assistance from Evidence Specialist Vincent Souki conducted a one week Crime Scene Investigation Camp in June for interested high school students. The camp provided a hands on learning experience utilizing the latest technology, equipment and techniques in crime scene processing.

In 2013, the Criminal Investigation Division investigated 988 Part I offenses with 480 cases cleared, for a clearance rate of 48%. There were 1,000 Part II offenses investigated with 672 cases cleared, for a clearance rate of 67%.

There were 4,839 reported cases of abuse with 770 arrests. This represents a 1.8% increase in reported cases from 2012, which reflected 4,753 incidents of abuse with 558 arrests. In addition, there were 233 Violations of an Order for Protection in 2013.

In 2013, the Evidence and Identification Unit responded to 253 incidents. The Unit has the responsibility of finding, collecting and preserving physical evidence utilizing professionally recognized methods.

Crime Stoppers received 206 calls last year. The Crime Stoppers Program continues to provide information to detectives and other divisions in identifying suspects and illegal activities.

VICE DIVISION

Captain Donald Kanemitsu was in command of the Vice Division for the entire year.

The importation, distribution, sales, and use of illicit narcotics continue to be a significant problem for Maui County as a whole. Illicit narcotics are often attributed to other crime problems such as thefts, burglaries, assaults, sexual assaults, abuse of family/household members, and others. The division's goal continues to be the disruption and dismantling of drug trafficking organizations and to intercept illegal drugs prior to the drugs infiltrating our communities.

Donald Kanemitsu

Narcotics investigators continued working aggressively in their investigations into drug users, drug dealers, and drug trafficking organizations at all levels, executing 186 narcotics search warrants, generating 467 felony cases and 137 misdemeanor cases, resulting in 380 arrests.

In 1995, the Maui Police Department established its K-9 unit to fight the illegal importation of narcotics entering the island of Maui through parcels, freight and airports. In 2013, numerous positive canine alerts on parcels, vehicles, freight, and luggage led to 108 search warrants and 325 generated cases.

During 2013, the Gambling and Morals Section continued to disrupt and impact gambling and cockfighting enterprises in our communities. The Section investigated 129 gambling related offenses and 87 cockfight cases, which resulted in 105 gambling arrests and 31 cockfight arrests. A total of 10 prostitution/pornography related offenses were investigated during the year, resulting in 5 arrests.

Asset forfeiture continues to be an effective instrument utilized against the criminal element. It is commonly known that criminal entities obtain assets through illegal operations, and facilitate illegal transactions through the utilization of some of these assets, in what they propose to be legal enterprises. In 2013, the Unit investigated 66 asset forfeiture cases, continuing to debilitate and hinder the criminal elements.

JUVENILE CRIME PREVENTION DIVISION

Everett Ferreira

Lieutenant Everett Ferreira was in command of the Juvenile Crime Prevention Division for the entire year.

The Juvenile Crime Prevention Division, consisting of the Operations Unit and the Juvenile Counseling Program, continues to pursue its goals of reducing youth involvement in criminal activity and decreasing the incidence of family violence through pro-active measures.

The Juvenile Crime Prevention Division established the Pupukahi I Holomua Initiative in 2013, which combines all of the resources within the Division to create a comprehensive approach to juvenile crime prevention by establishing teams with assigned responsibility for a specific geographic area, creating consistent contacts with the police, school and community.

The Positive Outreach Intervention (P.O.I.) Program was initiated for juveniles who have been arrested and are awaiting court action. This voluntary program strives to deliver immediate consequences for negative behavior or criminal activity. In 2013, 83 youths successfully graduated from the P.O.I. Program. The P.O.I. participants provided 2,096 hours of community service throughout the year.

In 2013, officers arrested 144 juveniles for compulsory school attendance, 18 for curfew violations, 141 for juvenile runaway, 26 for prohibitions involving minors, and 26 for beyond parental control.

SPECIAL RESPONSE TEAM

Lieutenant Richard Dods was in command of the Special Response Team for the entire year.

The Special Response Team is a unit of specially selected officers who are trained, equipped, and organized into a Special Weapons and Tactics team utilizing both full-time and part-time members and a Career Criminal Unit consisting of full-time officers. The primary function of the Special Response Team is to handle any high risk incident, to include hostage situations, barricaded subjects, high risk search warrants, and the arrest of high risk fugitives.

At the close of 2013, the Special Response Team consisted of 27 members. Of those, 8 are members of the Negotiator Team.

Support Services Bureau

Assistant Chief of Police Lawrence Hudson was in command of the Support Services Bureau for the entire year.

The Support Services Bureau oversees the Plans, Training, Research and Development Section, Community Relations Section, Communications Section, Technical Services Division, Technical Support Unit, Motorpool Section, and Records and Identification Section.

Lawrence Hudson

COMMUNICATIONS SECTION

James Fletcher

Lieutenant James Fletcher was in command of the Communications Section for the entire year.

The Communications Section is comprised of two separate sections: Dispatch and Receiving Desk. Dispatch receives all calls for assistance for police, fire, and ambulance and dispatches the appropriate personnel to assist while providing radio communications to field units. With an operating staff of one supervising emergency services dispatcher and four emergency services dispatchers, dispatch received over 250,000 administrative calls and 80,000 911 calls for service in 2013. It also dispatched over 135,000 police cases, 16,000 fire calls and 17,000 medical cases.

The Receiving Desk is the central booking and holding facility for all arrests. Staffed with one Sergeant and two officers, Receiving processed 6,525 adults and 597 juveniles during the year. They also fingerprinted 1,300 persons for firearms registration, job applicants, immigration and covered offenders.

In 2013, the Communications Section began preparations to be able to receive text messaging from the public in order to be 9-1-1 compliant and the Computer Aided Dispatch System was updated in November.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS SECTION

Lieutenant Wayne Ibarra was in command of the Community Relations Section until his retirement on April 1, 2013. He was replaced by Lieutenant William Juan.

The Community Relations Section develops and maintains rapport with the community by designing programs to provide students and people of the community with meaningful experiences related to functions of the law, by developing an understanding of the process of establishing laws and why it is necessary, and identifying and defining problems between police and community.

William Juan

The Community Relations Section continued with its crime prevention programs in the areas of theft, burglary, robbery, neighborhood crime watch and drug education. The major focus remains on two key programs: Neighborhood and Business Crime Watch and Drug Abuse Resistance Education.

Public presentations continue to be a responsibility for all officers in the section. In 2013, there were 179 requests for public presentations and related services from various organizations and schools.

The South Maui Citizen Patrol group continued to patrol areas of increased criminal behavior. The group patrols the Makena and Wailea areas to help deter break-ins to vehicles at the state beach parking lots. There were 28 volunteers who donated a total of 1,252 hours.

Chaplaincy Program

The Police Chaplaincy Program once again provided excellent services to the community and personnel of our Department. In 2013, the chaplains responded to 44 call outs and participated in 275 activities. As of December, the Police Chaplains were Reverend Christopher Martin, Reverend Paul Kaneshiro, Reverend Gary Colton, Reverend Lynette Schaefer, Reverend Arza Brown, and Reverend Milton Fricke.

PLANS, TRAINING, RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT SECTION

Lieutenant Leighton Kanaele was in command of the Plans, Training, Research and Development Section for the entire year.

The Plans, Training, Research and Development Section conducts the Department's planning, training, research and development activities, conducts special studies into crime problems, new equipment and techniques, and training courses. The section is also responsible for reviewing and evaluating the training needs of the Department and the development of immediate and long-range training programs.

On April 12, 2013, the 77th Police Recruit Class graduated with 13 recruits, of which 10 successfully completed the Field Training Officer Program and were recommended for solo patrol. The 78th Police Recruit completed its second phase of the Field Training Officer (FTO) portion of their training on December 27, 2013. The remaining ten members of the class have moved on to the third phase of the FTO program in their respective districts of Wailuku, Lahaina and Kihei. On September 30, 2013, the 79th Police Recruit Class began with 23 recruits, of which 21 were still in the program at the close of the calendar year.

The graduation ceremony for the 77th recruit class was held at the Maui Beach Hotel on April 12, 2013. Family, friends, guests, and co-workers gathered together to commemorate the event. The Keynote Speaker was Deputy Prosecutor Tracy Jones.

Award winners included Ryan Tengan for Scholastic Achievement, Eric Grundy for Firearms, Eleazar Bartolome for Physical Fitness, Joseph Delos Santos for Best Notebook, Eric Grundy for A.D.T., and Eric Grundy for Outstanding Recruit.

The graduation ceremony for the 78th recruit class was held at the Maui Beach Hotel on November 1, 2013. The Keynote Speaker was Mr. Mufi Hanneman.

Award winners included Matthew Turpen for Scholastic Achievement, Reid Okazaki for Firearms, Andy Shuetz for Physical Fitness, Paul Feagai for Best Notebook, Chad Romero for A.D.T., and Christopher Visaya for Outstanding Recruit.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT UNIT

Lance Kaupalolo

Sergeant Lance Kaupalolo was in command of the Technical Support Unit for the entire year.

The Technical Support Unit is responsible for providing report completion assistance to all department users who enter information into the various Intergraph applications; to maintain functionality and coordinate improvements in the I/LEADS Records Management System, Jail Management System, Mobile Public Safety, Intergraph Field Reporting System, and the various interfaces; review all purchases of electronic computer devices; and act as a liaison between the Department and the County Information and Technology Services Division.

TECHNICAL SERVICES DIVISION

Captain John Kaupalolo was in command of the Technical Services Division at the close of 2013.

The Division provides command responsibilities for Motor Pool, Radio Shop, and the Records and Identification Section. The Technical Services Division Commander serves in the position primarily responsible for managing the various Capital Improvement Projects for the Department. Additionally, the Technical Services Division Commander acts as the facility manager for Hale Maka'i. He was assisted by Mr. Wayne Smith, Building Maintenance and Repair.

John Kaupalolo

Capital Improvement Projects in 2013 included the completion of the South Maui Police Station, the Records Section renovation, the Ukumehame Firing Range classroom, the painting of the Wailuku Police Station, the renovation of the Hana cottage, the re-roofing of the Lahaina Police Station, and chiller tower dust/dirt control at the Wailuku Police Station.

MOTOR POOL

Trent Matsumoto supervised the Motor Pool staff for the entire year.

The primary responsibility of the Motor Pool is to ensure the availability of a functioning police fleet. The maintenance and upkeep of a police fleet is a rudimentary part of ensuring continuing police service.

At the end of the year, 150,959 gallons of unleaded fuel and 660 gallons of oil were used to service fleet vehicles, 422 tires of various sizes were replaced, 356 vehicles taken to designated repair shops for mechanical and electrical problems, and 8,571 vehicles were washed. There were 489 vehicle services to include oil, air filter replacements, tire rotation, topping off of fluids, and brake checks. There were also 233 vehicle safety inspections performed throughout the year.

Trent Matsumoto

RADIO SHOP

Walter Pacheco

Walter Pacheco supervised the Radio Shop for the entire year.

The Radio Shop is responsible for providing continuous, reliable public safety communications within the County of Maui, while advancing the Public Safety Radio System Replacement Project and several smaller related projects. In addition to the ongoing efforts to maintain the aging EF Johnson radio system, the Public Safety Radio System Replacement, site improvements, and construction project have been the focus of the Radio Shop in 2013.

RECORDS AND IDENTIFICATION SECTION

Kathleen Paschoal was the Acting Manager of the Records and Identification Section for the year.

In 2013, the Records and Identification Section continued to serve as the primary repository for all official police reports and evidence, while contributing to and participating in various statewide projects.

The four year upward trend in firearm registrations and permit to acquire applications continues. In 2013, the Section processed 2,683 permits to acquire firearms, registered 7,560 firearms, reviewed 38,374 reports, processed 3,911 subpoenas, and processed 9,007 arrests reports.
